

WIZ

On one dark and misty night, we lost a man and it gave us a fright. On the next day we all found out he died. We put on a sigh and everyone cried. He was loved and everyone that knew him knew him well, the way he died nobody would tell. He is missed a lot and loved even more than ever, he will stay in our hearts forever. We will all meet him up there someday somehow, but we wish he was down here playing darts right now. We love you and miss you very much WIZ. You are gone but not forgotten...in our hearts forever!!
